We have a full, informative and inspirational agenda prepared for CEOs, senior leaders, and influencers who have an interest in transforming their organization. You will have an opportunity to interact with speakers virtually, and complete the Summit with the tools you need to transform your organization to a faith-friendly and servant-oriented workplace.

You will hear from Frank Harrison, Chairman and CEO, of Coca-Cola Consolidated who will be sharing their story of transformation and how Coca-Cola Consolidated became a company that honors God, serves others, pursues excellence and is driven to grow profitably. In addition, we have a line-up of experienced speakers on topics that range from the legalities of faith-based programs to corporate chaplaincy, charitable giving and critical steps to transform your workplace.
